

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGES

2010 BANQUET TOASTING – CHAUNCEY, HOLDEN, KARIS

$15,000 – PATRON OF THE ARTS

2 VIP Tables (20)

1 Full page in Program

Logo inclusion on invite

Inclusion on HOBI website

Inclusion on HOBI Facebook

Recognition from podium

Recognition in video

Company signage 1 banner in banquet room

Opportunity to place promotional material on tables

Signage at House of Broadcasting Museum located on Fifth Avenue in Scottsdale

$10,000 – AMBASSADORS OF THE ARTS

2 VIP Tables (20)

½ page in Program

Logo inclusion on invite

Inclusion on HOBI website

Inclusion on HOBI Facebook

Recognition from podium

Recognition on video

$5,000 – FIFTH AVENUE

1 VIP Table (10)

¼ page in Program

Logo inclusion on invite

Recognition from podium

House of Broadcasting Radio & Television Museum was established in 1993 and is located at 7150 E. Fifth Avenue in Scottsdale. This 2,000 square foot museum offers a compendium of personalities and paraphernalia from the dynamic broadcast industry, preserving for all time Arizona's beginnings, for generations to experience and treasure for years to come.

House of Broadcasting is a 501c3 non-profit Museum and is free to the public, made possible through sponsorships of Celebrity Roasts/Toasts/Salutes, private donations and contributions, and the HOBI Annual Golf Tournament.

Please visit us online at houseofbroadcasting.com and www.facebook.com/houseofbroadcasting